DOLOMITES... SOUTH TIROL... MOUNTAINS.

September 2016... A luxury hotel, the friends you know from the forum and previous events, driving with our beloved SL through the Alps, great people, great roads, and great fun....that's what we're aiming for.

How a plan got started.....

During the 50th birthday of our beloved Pagodas in Willingen 2013, I met my 2 co-organizers, Peter and Johannes at the hotel bar (where else). We started talking and found our interest in Gin-Tonics and Classic Cars a very enjoyable subject of conversation. Johannes told me he owns and runs a Hotel in Merano, Sud Tirol (Italy), and loved classic cars. So during that pleasant evening he gave me a brochure which I found it in my pocket the next morning. Since our holiday started after the Willingen Event, we decided to give his Hotel a visit on our way to Tuscany. A good decision it turned out to be. We were really impressed by the roads, the mountains and the city of Merano. Spend two days at Johannes in his Hotel, and had a blast. By then we already spoke about an event that we could organize over there, but the 2014 UK event, organized by James Lester, was first to come. And since they also attended there, Johannes and Peter got a good impression of what we mean with a Pagoda Euro Event. So after our very great and well organized UK weekend (thank you James), I asked my friend Paul to co-organize, together with Peter and Johannes to get things started for a Italy / Merano / South Tirol Euro Event.

Paul and myself were co-organizers during our 2012 Event in the Ardennes, so we know what it means to organize a get-together like this. Although I must say it was closer to home so more convenient.

Where are we going

Well, to the mountains thanks to Peter and Johannes who did their best to select a great hotel for us with all the comfort that will suit everyone. Hotel Quellenhof is located directly in the vicinity of Merano and has all the facilities to accommodate us. Take a look at their site and you know what I mean..

The great advantage that we have is that Peter and Johannes are local members who got us a great deal with this hotel. Knowing most of the attendees I think it's right on the spot.

Costs

This event will not be subsidized by the Pagoda SL Group. All attendees will need to carry their own costs. In 2010, 2012 and 2014 we learned that attendees generally prefer a bit of luxury, good hotels and food, over a saving in costs. So this will not be a budget weekend, given the goals that we set ourselves of making this a unique and unforgettable experience.
